

DARK PAPER

SANTA $CLAWS

"Embrace the Chill Where Crypto
Meets Horror."

INTRODUCTION

Santa donned a vampire cape, its deep velvet brushing against the snow beneath his boots. His new sleigh, midnight black with silver engravings of twisted trees and full moons, was eerily pulled by bats, their red eyes glowing against the pitch-black night. Each bat had an intimidating wingspan, making a deafening sound as they flapped through the cold wind.

Santa's boots, once shiny and bright, were now covered in ash, and his signature beard had streaks of crimson.

As he approached each house, the gleam of his razor-sharp metal claws shimmered under the pale moonlight.

With swift precision, he carved eerie smiles into pumpkins, their insides glowing with an unholy light. Each chuckle that escaped his lips sent shivers down the spines of those who heard it, a chilling reminder of his new phrase,

"Merry Frightmas!"
